Washington University Global Studies Law Review

VOLUME 6 NUMBER 3 2007

JUDGMENT

AT

NUREMBERG

A THREE-DAY CONFERENCE ON THE TRIAL OF THE MAJOR GERMAN WAR CRIMINALS AT NUREMBERG 1945–1946

PRESENTED BY

WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY LAW WHITNEY R. HARRIS INSTITUTE FOR GLOBAL LEGAL STUDIES

Washington University
DEPARTMENT OF PHILOSOPHY

Washington University SCHOOL OF LAW IN COLLABORATION WITH

ROBERT H. JACKSON CENTER
AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION: SECTION OF INT'L. LAW
AMERICAN SOCIETY OF INTERNATIONAL LAW
SYMPOSIUM

Friday, 29 September 2006 Anheuser-Busch Hall—Room 310

ANALYSIS OF THE MAJOR CRIMES DECLARED AND ENFORCED BY THE INTERNATIONAL MILITARY TRIBUNAL AT NUREMBERG

8:30 Opening

John Haley, Director, Whitney R. Harris Institute for Global Legal Studies, Washington University, School of Law

Welcome

Mark Rollins, Chair—Washington University, Department of Philosophy Kent Syverud, Dean—Washington University, School of Law

Remarks

Larry May, Washington University, Department of Philosophy Leila Sadat, Washington University, School of Law

9:00–9:45 Opening Address

Introduction: Leila Sadat

Address

M. Cherif Bassiouni, DePaul University College of Law The Legal/Moral Legacy of Nuremberg & its Impact on International Criminal Justice

9:45-10:00 Break

10:00–11:45 Crimes Against Humanity, Including Genocide

Chair: Leila Sadat

Panel

Patricia Wald, Former Chief Judge, U.S. Court of Appeals; Former Judge, ICTY

David Luban, Georgetown University, Law & Philosophy Diane Orentlicher, American University, Washington College of Law Steven Ratner, University of Michigan Law School

Comments/Questions

12-1:30 Lunch & Address—Whittemore House [Reservation required]

Introduction: Larry May

Address

Thomas Franck, New York University School of Law Individual Criminal Liability and Collective Civil Responsibility: Do They Reinforce or Contradict Each Other?

1:30-3:00 Offenses Against the Laws and Customs of War

Chair: Stephen Legomsky, Washington University, School of Law

Panel

David Rodin, Oxford University, Philosophy Nancy Sherman, Georgetown University, Philosophy & Law Patricia Viseur-Sellers, Prosecutor ICTY/ICTR

3:00-3:15 Break

3:15-5:00 The Crime of Aggressive War

Chair: Larry May

Panel

Roger S. Clark, Rutgers University School of Law Mark Drumbl, Washington & Lee University School of Law Michael Walzer, Institute of Advanced Studies, Princeton Comments/Questions

6:30 Dinner and Address– Whittemore House [Reservation required]

Conference Contemplations

Larry May and Leila Sadat

COMMEMORATION

Saturday, 30 September 2006 Anheuser-Busch Hall—Room 310

THE SIXTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF THE JUDGMENT OF THE INTERNATIONAL MILITARY TRIBUNAL AT NUREMBERG

8:30 a.m. Presiding: John Haley

8:35-10:15 The Prosecution of War Criminals at Nuremberg

Chair: Greg L. Peterson, Robert H. Jackson Center

Panel

John Q. Barrett, St. John's University

The Crucial Role of Justice Robert H. Jackson

Whitney R. Harris, Nuremberg Prosecutor The Evidence at Nuremberg Henry King, Nuremberg Prosecutor The Nuremberg Precedent

10:15-10:30 Break

10:30-11:45 Prosecuting International Crimes after Nuremberg

Chair: Larry May

Panel

David Crane, Syracuse University College of Law

Nuremberg to West Africa-The Jackson Legacy in Jeopardy-International

Criminal Justice at a Crossroads

Michael Scharf, Case Western Reserve University

Order in the Courtroom: From Goering to Saddam, the Challenges of Trying a Tyrant

11:45–12 Comments/Questions

12-1:30 Lunch Address—W. L. Hadley Griffin Student Commons [Reservation required]

Introduction: John Haley

Address

Richard Goldstone, Constitutional Court of South Africa

After Impunity

1:40–3:00 The International Criminal Court in the Twenty-First Century

Chair: Leila Sadat

Panel

David Scheffer, Northwestern University

Creating an International Criminal Court

Hans Peter Kaul, International Criminal Court

The International Criminal Court—Current Challenges and Perspectives

William Pace. Coalition for the International Criminal Court

The ICC and the Vision of a "Never Again" Court—Are the New

Century's Disastrous Failures of International Political Policy

Threatening the New ICC?

3:00-3:15 Break

3:15-4:45 A World of Peace Under the Rule of Law

The View from Europe

Christoph Safferling, Erlangen University, Whitney R. Harris International Law Scholar of the Robert H. Jackson Center

The View from America

Ben Ferencz, Nuremberg Prosecutor

Closing Remarks

Whitney R. Harris

4:45-5:00 Comments/Questions

6:00 Dinner and Speaker Session—Knight Center [Reservation required]

6-6:30 Social Hour, 6:30-7:15 Supper

7:15 Master of Ceremonies: John Haley, Director, Harris Institute

Welcome: Mark S. Wrighton, Chancellor, Washington University

Introduction: Leila Sadat, Washington University, School of Law

Philippe Kirsch

President—International Criminal Court

Applying the Principles of Nuremberg in the International Criminal Court

2006 World Peace Through Law Award by Whitney Harris

Introduction: Larry May, Washington University, Department of Philosophy

Christopher Dodd

United States Senator—Connecticut Nuremberg: Past, Present and Future

Award Presentation

Nuremberg—City of Peace and Human Rights

Whitney Harris City of St. Louis—Mayor Francis Slay City of Nuremberg—Represented by Hans Hesselmann, Head of Human Rights Office

Closing Remarks:

Mark Rollins, Washington University, Department of Philosophy Kent Syverud, Washington University, School of Law

DOCUMENTARIES

Sunday, 1 October 2006 Anheuser-Busch Hall—Room 309—9 a.m.

Beginning at 9 a.m. on Sunday, 1 October 2006, Whitney Harris and John Haley will have a presentation and commentary in Anheuser-Busch Hall, showing motion pictures and photographic displays of Nazi Germany, some of which were introduced in evidence at the Nuremberg Trial.

THE NUREMBERG TRIALS:
THE THIRD REICH'S INHUMANITY TO MAN ON TRIAL
(USSR DOCUMENTARY 1949)
AND
NUREMBERG (U.S. ARMY DOCUMENTARY 1949)

8:30-9:00

Photographic display available in 309 and 312. Please feel free to browse.

9:00-10:00

The first movie, The Nuremberg Trials: the Third Reich's Inhumanity to Man on Trial, is a dark film that graphically illustrates in stark images and uncompromising narrative the terrible cost of the wars of conquest and genocide waged by Nazi Germany. Sections on concentration camp horrors may be distressing to some viewers. Russian, original dubbed English version, released immediately after the conclusion of the 1946 trials in black and white, 57 minutes. This film is a rare video recording.

10:00-10:30

Looking Back: Whitney R. Harris

10:30-11:46

The second movie, Nuremberg, originally released as a motion picture in 1949, was produced by the Documentary Film Unit, Information Services, OMGUS, published in Washington, D.C., by the Department of the Army, and distributed by the National Audiovisual Center. This film is in black and white and is 76 minutes long. It is a documentary record of the trials of the Nazi leaders at Nuremberg, Germany. Nuremberg includes scenes from films made by the Nazis which were presented as the documentary evidence of the atrocities committed at concentration camps.

11 September 2006