

Washington University Journal of Law & Policy

VOLUME 61

2020

TABLE OF CONTENTS

THE RISE OF FINTECH

Introduction: The Rise of Fintech , Andrew F. Tuch	1
The Nature of the Fintech Firm , Howell E. Jackson	9
Dealing with Disruption: Emerging Approaches to Fintech Regulation , Saule T. Omarova	25
Building Fintech Ecosystems: Regulatory Sandboxes, Innovation Hubs and Beyond , Ross P Buckley, Douglas Arner, Robin Veidt & Dirk Zetsche	55
Regulation by Selective Enforcement: The SEC and Initial Coin Offerings , James J. Park & Howard H. Park	99
Embrace the SEC , Usha R. Rodrigues	133
Crowdfunding Issuers in the United States , Andrew A. Schwartz	155
Smart Contracts and the Illusion of Automated Enforcement , Danielle D’Onfro	173
Stable Cryptocurrencies , Craig Calcaterra, Wulf A. Kaal & Vadhindran Rao	193

What Regulatory Problems Arise When Fintech Lending Expands into Fledgling Credit Markets?, Jonathan Greenacre 229

NOTES

Impact of Criminal Justice Debt on Indigent Defendants in Tennessee, Elizabeth Forester 253

Chipping Away at Workplace Privacy: The Implantation of RFID Microchips and Erosion of Employee Privacy, Wes Turner . . .275

Modern-Day Apartheid in Missouri: How Massey v. Normandy Schools Collaborative Overlooks De Facto Segregation Created by Missouri’s School Accreditation Classification System, Kyla Vick 299