

Washington University Journal of Law & Policy

Volume 30

2009

Table of Contents

Open Source and Proprietary Models of Innovation: Beyond Ideology

Introduction	Charles R. McManis	1
Policy Challenges of Open, Cumulative and User Innovation.....	Joel West	000
The Tools and Levers of Access to Patented Health Related Genetic Invention in Canada.....	S. Tina Piper	000
Contribution Attribution as the Possible Next Step for “Crowdsourced” Engineering Design and Product Development.....	Mark J. Jakiela	000
Open Source Human Evolution	Dr. Andrew W. Torrance	000
Conceiving Open Systems.....	Christopher M. Kelty	000
Slouching Toward Open Innovation: Free and Open Source Software (FOSS) for Electronic Health Information.....	Greg R. Vetter	000
Open Source License Proliferation: Helpful Diversity or Hopeless Confusion?.....	Robert W. Gomulkiewicz	000
The Collaborative Nature of Innovation.....	Keith Sawyer	000
Market Structure and Property Rights in Open Source Industries	Michele Boldrin David K. Levine	000
The University as Constructed Cultural Commons.....	Michael J. Madison Brett M. Frischmann Katherine J. Strandburg	000

The Interface of Open Source & Proprietary
Agricultural Innovation: Facilitated Access
& Benefit Sharing Under the New FAO
Treaty.....Charles R. McManis 000
Eul Soo Seo

The FAO Multilateral System for Plant Genetic
Resources for Food and Agriculture: Better than Bilateralism?..... Muriel Lightbourne 000

Notes

Attacking Without Provocation; Maintaining a
Subsequent Occupation; All for the Sake of Democratization: The Constitutionality and
Wisdom of Preventive War and Post-Conflict
Nation-Building.....Kevin Green 000

Bored Out of Their Minds: The Detrimental
Effects of No Child Left Behind on
Gifted Children..... Elizabeth A. Siemer 000

Equal Protection & Choice in Marital Surname.....Kelly Snyder 000

It Really Does Take a Village: Recognizing the Total
Caregiving Network by Moving Toward a
Functional Perspective in Family Law After Troxel v. Granville.....Lauren Worssek 000