

Washington University Journal of Law & Policy

VOLUME 69

2022

TABLE OF CONTENTS

AFTER THE TRUMP ADMINISTRATION: LESSONS AND LEGACIES FOR THE LEGAL PROFESSION

Trump, Lawyer Regulation, and the Institutional Double Bind, Benjamin H. Barton	1
Ethical Quagmires for Government Lawyers: Lessons for Legal Education, Susan Saab Fortney	17
Lawyers and the Lies They Tell, Bruce A. Green and Rebecca Roiphe	37
The Ethics of Trump’s Shadow Lawyers?, Peter A. Joy and Kevin C. McMunigal	127
Attorney General William Barr, the Mueller Report, and the Problem of Truth, Joel Levin	147
“This Is Not Normal”: The Role of Lawyer Organizations in Protecting Constitutional Norms and Values, Leslie C. Levin	173
Toward More Robust Self-Regulation Within the Legal Profession, Veronica Root Martinez and Caitlin-Jean Juricic	241

Moving Past “Progressive” Prosecution in the Wake of the Trump Administration,
Maybell Romero275

The Role of Attorney Speech and Advocacy in the Subversion and Protection of Constitutional Governance,
Margaret Tarkington287

NOTES

Throwing Discretion to the Wind: Discretionary Denials in Instituting Inter Partes Review Under the NHK-Fintiv Framework,
Douglas Crandell 341

Deepwater Horizon Ten Years Later: Regulations, Rollbacks, and Where We Go from Here,
James Isacks 373

Crime and (Disparate) Punishment: The Eighth Circuit’s Erroneous Application of the Categorical Approach in Bakor v. Barr,
Emily Thieman 399

The Price of Privacy: A Call for a Blanket Ban on Facial Recognition in the City of St. Louis,
Sylvia Waghorne 421