

ERRATUM

In the June issue of the QUARTERLY (Vol. 1959, No. 3), the following error occurred in the numbering of footnotes in the article by Starnes, Contributory Negligence of a Minor as a Matter of Law in Missouri, at pp. 290-92:

Footnote No. 39 was omitted from the text; hence, footnotes 39-50 are misnumbered. To correct this error, subtract one from the number of each footnote from 39-50.

WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW

The Washington University School of Law is a charter member of the Association of American Law Schools, and is on the approved list of the Section on Legal Education and Admissions to the Bar of the American Bar Association. While students are admitted with a minimum of three years of college work, intending applicants are strongly urged to procure the first baccalaureate degree before applying for admission.
